

You are cordially invited to the...
PCOP Zoom Book Club

Since we are sheltering in place, many of us have more time,
but fewer opportunities to connect with others,
in a time when we might most need each other and a way to understand what's happening in our world.

Two Meetings via Zoom:

Sunday, April 19th from 6:00 pm -7:15 pm (The first half of the book)

Second Meeting Date TBD (The second half of the book)

Discussions will be led by PCOP Members Frank Tisano & Sonja Ware

Cormac McCarthy's *The Road

Cormac McCarthy is author of many spare, soulful, books about the American West, loneliness, and the struggle for humanity. In this, his Pulitzer Prize winner, McCarthy invites us into the lives of a father and son, who are trying to stay alive in a world that has suffered a terrible crisis. There is a tension between physical and emotional needs, self-preservation and commitment to others, and how to carry on a sense of goodness when we've lost most of our familiar signposts.

*This program is free of charge and open to the community, but please register at philanalysis.org
(Zoom meeting information will be attached to registration confirmation email)*

Questions? Contact:

Ashlyn Ernst
PCOP Membership & Events Coordinator
aernst@philanalysis.org