The earlier new potential students apply to the program, the earlier they can be informed of acceptance and the earlier the Scholarship Committee can decide to grant them a scholarship. Individuals who are waiting to hear back about their acceptance in a training program will be provisionally granted scholarships but will not be informed until the acceptance is final.

For which scholarship are you applying? (You may apply for more than one.)

Board Foundation

Claffie Fund (for Social Workers)

Parens Scholarship (for people working with underserved populations)

Resident Education Fund (for Philadelphia residents or fellows)

Have you applied for another scholarship/loan? Check the box for "yes".

Biddle Loan

Candidate Assistance Fund (APsaA)

Please include the following information in a separate letter:

- A brief statement about your personal circumstances
- A description of how participation in the training program will support your career development
- A description of your career plans and financial support as you expect them to develop over the next few years
- A brief description about the financial circumstances that would warrant the awarding of a scholarship

Please include your most recent 1040 as documentation of your current income. If the form 1040 isn't applicable to you, please include a list of your average monthly household expenses and income. We expect that you will reveal any significant savings such as investments or personal trusts, which will be taken into account during our decision-making process.

How to Submit Your Application

To submit your application, please include:

- A completed application
- Your personal statement, and
- Your most recent 1040 (If the form 1040 isn't applicable to you, please include a list of your average monthly household expenses and income.)

Please combine this information into a single PDF document and email it to pcop@philanalysis.org with your name followed by "Scholarship Application" (e.g. John Smith – Scholarship Application).

The application deadline is August 1.
